Disciple Notes

Week of November 16, 2026

Back in the 1990s, there was a national Christian men's movement called Promise Keepers that swept across the country. The group was led by then University of Colorado head football coach Bill McCartney. The group held stadium-filled rallies for men across the country, calling men to fulfill their commitments to God and their families and live according to God's design in every area of life. I attended one of those rallies in Knoxville. It was amazing to hear tens of thousands of men raising their voices in praise to Jesus! McCartney left Promise Keepers after more than a decade in leadership in order to take care of his ailing wife. He was keeping his promise.

A promise is a vow that you'll keep your word. That you can be trusted to do what you said you were going to do. It's a matter of integrity. The problem is we all struggle to keep our promises at some point. Situations or circumstances change. Or, we simply forget. But, whatever the reason, a broken promise can cause a broken relationship.

Oh, but there's Someone who never breaks a promise. Someone who can always be trusted to keep His Word and do what He says He's going to do. It may not be exactly what we expect or in the time we want but God is the One and Only true Promise Keeper. Aren't we glad?

We're going to take a look at that this week as we talk about Hebrews 6:13-20. I encourage you to read this encouraging passage. And, let me remind you that we could use some help decorating the church building on November 22 and 2 PM for the Christmas season. I hope you can make it. We look forward to worshiping with you on Sunday and bring a friend. Have a great week!

In Christ,
David
