The Gospel of Luke

Seeker. Savior.
He came to seek and to save the lost.

If you've been around church much, you've probably heard the word "gospel" thrown around a lot. As Christians, we talk a lot about the gospel but we can sometimes be a little fuzzy on what it actually is. I've heard some explanations over the years that left me a little confused and I've probably confused some people by my own fuzzy explanations. Maybe you've had the same experience. As a young Christian, I knew that the gospel was good news. Or, at least that's what the preacher and my youth group leaders said but I probably couldn't explain why it was so good.

As Jesus' disciples, we know we're supposed to share the gospel with other people. But, it's hard to do that if we don't really understand it ourselves. In fact, we can talk ourselves out of sharing Jesus with someone because we're afraid we won't be able to explain something or answer a question. I know I feel that way sometimes. The core of the gospel really isn't that hard to understand or even to explain. But, it can be really hard for some people to accept.

This past Sunday evening, we spent some time talking about what the gospel is and how it impacts our lives. Next Sunday evening at 6 PM, we're going to talk about how to share the gospel with someone. I encourage you to join us as we learn and maybe even practice some easy and practical ways to share the gospel. I hope you'll join us and bring a friend. This would be a great way for a non-Christian to hear and learn more about the gospel for themselves.

And, I encourage you to read ahead this week as we prepare to gather together to worship and to study God's Word. We'll talk about Luke 19:45-20:19. We look forward to worshiping with you on Sunday. Have a great week!

In Christ,
David

David on Sunday, January 25 at 6 PM.
We invite you to attend and to

Spiritual Growth

There are several spiritual disciplines that are important for our spiritual growth. Praying, worship, tithing, fasting, service, church attendance and fellowship are just a few. All of these help us remain connected to Christ and to one another. One of the most important disciplines for our spiritual growth is Bible reading and study. HCC offers several studies throughout the week for adults and for students. We encourage you to start the new year strong by committing to participate in one of the studies provided by the church. This is also a good way to invite others to get to know Jesus. Bring a friend!
