Disciple Notes

Week of October 19, 2026

When my grandkids were younger, I really looked forward to nap time. Now, it might not be for the reason you think. It wasn't to get a break and catch my breath, although that was nice. Where do they get all of that energy? I actually looked forward to their nap time so I could take a nap. When lunch was over, I was excited because it was time to lay down and, of course, I always volunteered to be the one to lay down with them. In the early years, they would fall asleep and I would get up to catch up on a few things. Later on, I would fall asleep and they would get up to play. I'm not sure that was the way it was supposed to work. I remember my disappointment on the day that my youngest grandson told me he didn't take naps any more. I still tried to convince him that he looked really tired.

As I've gotten older, I've learned that sleep and rest aren't always guaranteed. Sometimes I try to take a nap or even fall asleep at night and it just doesn't happen. Too many thoughts racing through my head. Places to go. People to see. Things to do. Those are the thoughts that usually steal my rest and I pay for it along with everyone else around me who has to deal with my grumpiness.

Last week, we talked about how unbelief impacts our eternal and daily rest. This week, we're going to talk more about what God's rest means and how to enter into it. That's something we can all benefit from. I encourage you to read about the rest God has to offer in Hebrews 4:1-13 this week. Take some time to meditate on God's rest and consider what He offers you. Maybe even take a nap. We look forward to worshipping with you on Sunday and bring a friend. Have a great week!

In Christ,
David
