Disciple Notes

Week of February 23, 2026

Have you ever had one of those times where you were trying to get a really important point across in a discussion. Maybe you were teaching a class or having a conversation with your child, a spouse or your friend. You were talking about something that was really important to you. Making solid eye contact. Checking the room to make sure everyone was paying attention. And it seemed like they were with you.

They understood how important this was to you, nodding their heads and looking you in the eyes. You were so pleased to see that they were really hearing you.

And, then, someone asked a question or made a comment that had absolutely nothing to do with what you were saying and it all fell apart. Everything you just said with passion from the heart seemed to pass right over the head, in one ear and out the other. I've had several of those moments as a parent and a teacher. It can be so deflating and discouraging.

Jesus had those moments, too. Times when he was trying to teach the disciples something really important and they either totally missed it or seemingly forgot it. In fact, He had one of those moments on the night He was betrayed. Here He was, about to be scourged and crucified, trying to give His disciples some last minute instructions and they broke out in an argument over something that had absolutely nothing to do with what He'd been talking about. How discouraging but Jesus took that opportunity to teach them another important lesson. Aren't you glad He never gives up on us?

We're going to talk about that and more this week as we discuss Luke 22:21-46. I hope you'll read ahead as we prepare to gather together to worship, pray and to study God's Word. Have a great week! And, bring a friend.

In Christ,
David
