Disciple Notes

Week of October 5, 2026

If you were to ask a young Jewish boy of Jesus' time who their favorite Bible hero was, odds are probably pretty high that you'd get one of the following: Abraham, Moses, David, or Elijah. There were some other heroes of the faith in the Old Testament like Joseph,

Daniel, Samuel, Deborah, and Solomon but those first four seem to be the men that we read about the most.

After all, Abraham was the father of the faith, David was the greatest king and warrior, and Elijah was generally considered the greatest prophet. But, Moses held a very special place in the Jewish faith. Chosen and spared by God when he was taken from the Nile by Pharaoh's daughter. Called by God at the burning bush. The vessel for the ten plagues against Egypt. The deliverer of Israel from slavery. The instrument used by God to part the Red Sea and the receiver of the Law, including the Ten Commandments, on Mount Sinai. Even if you think someone else should first on the list, it's pretty hard to argue with Moses' credentials for greatness in the history of Israel.

Still, as great as he was, there's still One even greater. The Author of the Law, the Power behind the miracles, and the Voice that called Moses.

This week, we're going to talk again about the Greater One who exceeds any religious or political leader or any social reformer whoever walked this earth. I encourage you to read chapter three of Hebrews this week and meditate on the Greater Jesus to whom no one compares. We look forward to worshiping with you on Sunday and bring a friend. Have a great week!

In Christ,
David
