Disciple Notes

Week of May 11, 2026

My family has four birthdays within a few weeks of Christmas. In the midst of recovering from all of the holiday hustle and bustle, birthday celebrations can get lost, overlooked, or even forgotten. (That happened to me when Josh was born but that was more out of exhaustion than neglect.)

All of that to say that our group of four has no reason to feel sorry for ourselves compared to my son-in-law.

You see, Jeff's birthday is on December 25. That's right. Jeff's birthday is on Christmas, the most celebrated day of the year when most everyone gets gifts and eats special foods. But, I must say, that Jeff handles it very well. We celebrate his birthday with a special lunch of whatever he wants to eat followed by the big family Christmas meal later in the day. I hope he doesn't feel forgotten on his birthday.

This week, we're going to celebrate one of the most forgotten holidays in the Christian calendar. Everybody remembers Christmas and Easter and we make sure to celebrate Ash Wednesday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Pentecost. But, we often forget Ascension Day commemorating the day that Jesus ascended into heaven. Like Jesus' birth, crucifixion, and resurrection, His ascension is critical to our faith. We'll take a close look at this important event as we close out the gospel of Luke this Sunday, looking at Luke 24:50-53.

I encourage you to read and pray over these verses, especially on Thursday, May 14, this year's Ascension Day. This will be an exciting Sunday as we gather for our outdoor worship service, weather permitting, and our graduate luncheon after the service. Let's prepare ourselves to lift Jesus up in our worship this Sunday. Have a great week and bring a friend!

In Christ,
David
