Disciple Notes

Week of October 12, 2026

I remember as a young boy watching my grandfather and my dad sit down in the chair to watch the news or a television show after dinner only to fall asleep within five minutes. I would just laugh at those "old" men and wonder how they could get so tired so fast.

Now, over fifty years later, I get it! It seems like one of the most precious commodities in life is finding time to get a little rest.

Any time I'm with my grandkids, they want "Pop" to play. Hide and go seek, tickle monster, wrestling, jump on the trampoline, laser tag. It's only a few minutes before I start looking for a place to sit down and catch my breath. Where do they get all of that energy? I wish I could bottle it up and sell it. I'd make a fortune off of old geezers like me!

Life is demanding and it takes a lot of energy. And, not just physical energy. It takes a lot of emotional energy, too. The demands of each day can drain us even if we aren't running all over the yard chasing a ball. The pressure of the day. Trying to measure up. Hoping you're doing enough. It all puts a lot of wear and tear on our bodies, our minds, and our souls.

This week, we're going to talk about a rest that will renew and rejuvenate us. A rest that's more than anything this world has to offer. But, it's also a rest that can be lost. If you find yourself physically and emotionally tired, I encourage you to read about the rest God has to offer in Hebrews 3:7-19 this week. Take some time to meditate on the Greater One who offers a greater rest. We look forward to worshipping with you on Sunday and bring a friend. Have a great week!

In Christ,
David
