Disciple Notes

Week of May 25, 2026

Discipline has really changed over the years. Today, we put children in time out or take away privileges like screen time. My father-in-law used to joke about a family he knew where the punishment was no ice cream after midnight! In my day, it was the swift hand of justice or whatever else was available at the moment. A switch. (If you don't know what that is, ask your parents.) A spatula. Hot wheels track.

No counting to ten. You were lucky to even get a warning. I'm not promoting one form of discipline over another and we weren't abused. I'm just stating the facts for my family. We learned the "dos" and the "don'ts" of my house pretty fast.

God warned His people in the Old Testament over and over again about their rebellious sin. Stop doing what you're doing or discipline will come. And, it did. They refused to change and the northern kingdom of Israel was taken into captivity by the Assyrians starting in 734 BC followed by the Jews of the southern kingdom of Judah by the Babylonians about 150 years later. God used these brutal invaders to bring His judgment and punishment on His people.

That's the backdrop for our summer sermon series that starts this Sunday on the Old Testament book of Nehemiah. There's much to learn from this powerful book. Lessons of leadership, perseverance, repentance, and rebuilding of what was lost. Like Nehemiah, I invite you to come and let us rebuild together.

I encourage you to read and pray over the passages as we aspire to cover a chapter each week. This week, we'll look at chapter one, the story of how Nehemiah, a Jew in service of the Persian king, learned of the fate of Jerusalem and then how he responded. We can learn a lot from these eleven verses. Let's prepare our hearts to worship our King Jesus as we come together this Sunday. Have a great week and bring a friend. There's always room for one more!

In Christ,
David
