Disciple Notes

Week of February 2, 2026

"What happens when we die?" That's a question that's on a lot of people's minds, especially as we get older and have time to contemplate, realizing that there are probably more days behind us than there are ahead of us.

There are a lot of different ideas floating around about what happens after death. Some people believe that we just stop living and that's all.

Nothing else. We just cease to exist.

Other people take it a little further and believe that our soul is destroyed or annihilated and that's the end. Still others think that we die and are then reincarnated with a new life as a reward or punishment based on how we lived our past life. There are plenty more ideas on life after death, I'm sure.

Those thoughts are pretty depressing. They don't give life much purpose or hope. We're all just a bunch of atoms thrown together by luck and all we have to look forward to are the few years we share on this earth, as challenging as they may be, and that's it. Or, we've got to try to meet some standard of good deeds and good behavior that'll allow us to move up a step in a reincarnated existence. And, the fear that we'll fall back to a lower level if we don't. It all seems purposeless and exhausting.

Praise God for Jesus. That, in Christ, we have hope of grace in this life and eternal life with Him through that same grace. We have purpose in this world and we have resurrection into a future perfect life in heaven.

We're going to talk about that this week as we study together Luke 20:27-47. I hope you'll read ahead this week as we prepare our hearts and minds to gather together to worship, pray and to study God's Word. We look forward to worshiping with you on Sunday. Have a great week!

In Christ,
David
