Disciple Notes

Week of October 26, 2026

During my career at the school, I served as a counselor for a few years after hours of classes and training in how to listen and respond to students' concerns. As I listened to young people explain their problems and express their feelings, it was sometimes hard to not say "I know how you feel" or "I understand what you're going through", especially if I had a similar experience. But, we were trained not to do that.

It would seem like it would make someone feel better to know that the person they're talking with can relate to their feelings. But, that's not the way it usually works. More often, the person feels like you're not listening to them and have started thinking about yourself. Or, they'll blurt out something like "You don't know how I feel. You aren't me." And, they're right. We can't really know what it's like because we haven't experienced everything they've experienced.

But, the Bible tells us that Jesus has. The Bible says that Jesus was like us in every way possible. He laughed. He got hungry. He got tired. He got angry. He was betrayed and abandoned. And, He suffered and died. And, He faced every temptation we'll ever face. Because of His experience as fully man, Jesus really knows how we feel and what we're going through. He's experienced it all except for sin. What an incredible thought that we have a God who knows what it's like to be us.

This week, we're going to talk more about what that means for us as we go about our lives on this broken planet. I hope you'll read about Jesus, our High Priest, in Hebrews 4:14-5:10 this week. We look forward to worshiping with you on Sunday and bring a friend. And, don't forget to join us for HCC's Trunk or Treat on Wednesday at 6 PM. It's a lot of fun. Have a great week!

In Christ,
David
